APPLICATION INFORMATION

The AEA South Pacific Outstanding Apprentice Award recognizes apprentice technicians, employed by AEA member companies, for their exemplary performance and demonstrated professionalism in their field. This is an annual award to be given at the AEA South Pacific Meeting by EDMO Asia Pacific. See second page for complete award provisions.

In order to apply, please review the application procedures, answer the required written statement and obtain a letter of recommendation from your employer. E-mail or fax the completed application package to the AEA.

APPLICATION PROCEDURES

A complete application will consist of the following:

1. Letter of recommendation from current employer
2. Evidence of work experience in mechanical or electrical trade or technical enterprises
3. A statement written by the applicant outlining why the applicant is undertaking training as a LAME or Avionics Technician
4. Evidence of an employment commitment signed by the proprietor of an organisation holding any South Pacific national aviation authority certificate for maintenance and installation.

TERMS & CONDITIONS

Candidates must be actively working within the AEA South Pacific Region for a South Pacific national aviation authority-approved maintenance organisation.

Candidates will be judged based on superior performance in their field as well as specific accomplishments and demonstration of continuous education and professionalism.

Applications will be assessed by an expert panel and winners will be selected by EDMO Asia Pacific and Hamilton Aero.

Award recipient will receive:

1. $500 AUD from EDMO Asia Pacific and $500 NZD from Hamilton Aero at a special ceremony hosted during the AEA South Pacific meeting.
2. AEA will contribute $400 USD to help cover transportation and hotel costs for the award winner to attend the AEA South Pacific meeting in Coolumb, Australia – September 13-14, 2010. Note: Winner's employer will be responsible for remaining costs.
3. AEA will provide one complimentary full meeting registration.

I hereby make application for the AEA South Pacific Outstanding Apprentice Award within the terms and conditions of this application. I certify the information given is complete, accurate and my own work.
