Loading and Unloading

Loading or unloading is permitted only through the designated loading dock. No loading or unloading is permitted through the front doors of the Gaylord Palms Resort.

SECURITY

The Aircraft Electronics Association will provide 24-hour guard service for the duration of the trade show. However, in doing so, the AEA assumes no liability for providing this service. It remains the ultimate responsibility of exhibitors to protect their property as noted under the liability section. Beyond this, the Aircraft Electronics Association and the Gaylord Palms Resort, its officers, employees, directors and membership, separately or collectively, cannot accept responsibility for any damage to or for the loss or destruction of an exhibit, or for the property of an exhibitor, the exhibitor's agents or employees from fire, theft, accidents or other causes for any such loss, damage or injury being expressly waived by the exhibitor.

While every precaution will be taken, the Aircraft Electronics Association and Gaylord Palms Resort do not assume any financial responsibility for damaged or stolen equipment. The ultimate and final responsibility for security and protection of persons, displays, equipment and materials shall be with the exhibitor, who should arrange for appropriate insurance protection.

Exhibitors are encouraged to secure any valuable exhibit material prior to leaving the show floor.

LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

The Aircraft Electronics Association, its officers, directors, members, agents, and all organizations and individuals employed by the Association in conjunction with its 66th annual International Convention & Trade Show will not be responsible and shall be held harmless for any loss or injury resulting from accident, fire, theft or injury to exhibitors' property, their employees, guests or others during or subsequent to this convention and trade show.

The exhibitor assumes all responsibility for any and all loss, theft or damage to exhibitor's displays, equipment and other property while on Gaylord Palms Resort premises, and hereby waives any claim or demand it may have against Gaylord Palms Resort or its affiliates arising from such loss, theft or damage. In addition, the exhibitor agrees to defend (if requested), indemnify and hold harmless the Aircraft Electronics Association and Gaylord Palms Resort and their respective parent, subsidiary and other related or affiliated companies from and against any liabilities, obligations, claims, damages, suits, costs and expenses, including, without limitation, attorneys' fees and costs arising from or in connection with the exhibitor's occupancy and use of the exhibition premises or any part thereof or any negligent act, error or omission of the exhibitor or its employees, subcontractors or agents.

In addition, the exhibitor acknowledges the Aircraft Electronics Association, its officers, directors, agents and employees nor Gaylord Palms Resort maintain insurance coverage for exhibitor property or person, nor will any of the above named be responsible for providing or arranging for such insurance. It is the sole responsibility of the exhibitor to obtain business interruption and property damage insurance covering such losses by the exhibitor.

The rules outlined in the 2023 Exhibitor Prospectus and the Exhibit Space Contract, signed by both the AEA and the exhibitor representative, constitutes the complete agreement for the exhibitor's right to use the allocated space. In the event fire, flood, earthquake, strike or other circumstances beyond the control of the AEA prevent the use of the exhibitor's space inside the exhibit hall, the AEA is not liable for any resultant expenses or loss of revenue.

Upon acceptance by the AEA of the exhibitor's contract for space, the exhibitor agrees to be bound by the Rules & Regulations contained in this prospectus and subsequent exhibitor bulletins. Violations of the 2023 Rules & Regulations by the exhibitor may constitute a breach of this contract.

The AEA's remedy for any breach by an exhibitor may include termination of any and all rights to the exhibit space assigned by the AEA to the exhibitor and forfeiture of all fees paid.

EXHIBITION SERVICES AND MANAGEMENT

The AEA, at its discretion, may make amendments or additions to the Rules & Regulations of the contract between the AEA and the exhibitor. Any amendments or additions shall be binding on the exhibitor.

The ruling of the AEA shall be final in all instances with regard to use of any exhibit space. Upon receipt of an executed contract and payment in full, Exhibit Service Information will be mailed to the exhibitor at the address listed on the contract. This packet includes information regarding shipping, utility services, furniture, rental equipment and more.

CO-EXHIBITORS

The AEA must give prior approval for any company/companies sharing space. All companies must be members in good standing of the AEA. Fees apply.

SUITCASING

Any AEA International Convention & Trade Show attendee or exhibitor who is observed soliciting business in the aisles or other public places, including another company's booth, is in violation of the AEA's suitcasing policy and will be asked to leave immediately. Additional penalties may be applied.
